Problem Statement

Design and implement a console-based Employee ID Management System using a Binary Search Tree (BST) in C++. The system maintains employee identification numbers and performs insertion, searching, and deletion operations. Each employee ID is stored as a node in the BST. The system also displays employee IDs in sorted order using inorder traversal.